Agenda No 1

Dr. Shueb Ahmad placed the proceedings of previous meetings and all members confirmed it.

Agenda No 2

The proposal on the increasing importance of experimental learning and the trends prevailing in higher education where experimental learning plays a pivotal role in the academic excellence of any college was placed by Dr Shueb Ahmed in the meeting. The faculty of commerce endeavoured to promote new projects as a part of the curriculum last year. Industrial visit and interaction with entrepreneurs during the visit has been organized by the Commerce faculty especially in BBA Department in previous years. The proposal is unanimously passed with the resolution.

Resolution: One faculty member should be made in charge of this and the faculty will explore new prospects and new concepts to implement more vigorously in the current session.

Agenda No 3

Dr. Shueb Ahmad emphasized that each faculty member should at least get 2 papers published, Book chapters and Books each academic year. He explained that although faculty members have consistently indulged in research work and publishing papers in various UGC certified journals constant efforts and more papers are required by faculty members. He also discussed in detail on MOUs by different companies, colleges, and institutions for the better prospects of the students and the college. Secretary Dr. Shueb Ahmad also presents in front of the meeting to explore the potential to form any research chair.

The proposal and the agenda was unanimously passed with the resolution

Resolution: Each faculty member will publish at least two papers every year. Faculty members will explore the possibilities of MOUS with the company of the institute.

Dr. Shueb Ahmad Asks other members for any other agenda to be discussed. None of the agenda has been raised by any member so the meeting ended with a positive note
